performance, especially when this is linked to their strategic and cultural objectives. As generic qualifications, team leading and management can enable individuals to develop career opportunities within any sector or industry and as such the opportunities are limitless.

Team leading and management qualifications from Edexcel coherently bring together the outcomes, behaviours and knowledge required to deliver identified management functions into a tool which can be used by individual managers and their employees.

Why choose Edexcel?

Quality Assurance

Thorough quality assurance is a fundamental part of the Edexcel offering. We monitor the quality of support provided to learners, assessment and internal verification through our team of highly skilled and supportive EVs.

Key to our service delivery is the professionalism of our teams of EVs. As well as verifying your organisation's operations, they can also provide support and advice on how to develop your quality assurance systems – and we won't charge you for the visits.

Dedicated Regional Support

Edexcel has the largest network of regionally-based Curriculum Development Managers (schools and FE) and Regional Development Managers (Employers and Training Providers) of any awarding body in the UK – in excess of 100 representatives.

We have six regional offices across England and Wales that act as bases for our regional teams. Their role is to give you advice, guidance and support on every aspect of delivering our qualifications from ensuring that you comply with required procedures to highlighting different sources of funding that are available.

Easy administration and quick certification

Edexcel Online, our registration and certification system is our real-time administration enrolling system. This service is free of charge for registered Edexcel centres and gives you the flexibility to work at a time that suits you.

Paperwork is dramatically cut as all information can be viewed and updated in real-time. Edexcel online is unique in that once a claim for a certification has been completed online, it will be with you in less than 10 working days.

Training and Development

We offer further support through a comprehensive series of training events that are run at our regional offices throughout the year. These training events cover a wide range of sectors and activities.

If you require some specialised training for your staff delivering our qualifications, our Professional Development and Training department can offer a bespoke training facility for an identified need.

We'll also monitor progress and provide feedback for ensuring the ongoing success of your professional development and training programmes.

Bringing employers and training providers together

We work with many of the world's leading employers and training providers – and understand the strengths of each. Where appropriate, we're always delighted to recommend a high quality training provider to employers looking to outsource their training requirements.
